

Tuition Tax Credits: We are now able to provide official tax receipts for learners to claim the fees paid for the purpose of the tuition, education and textbook tax credits provided the fees total more than $100 and qualify for tuition expenses. To qualify, the learner must be 16 years old before the end of the year and the course/program must provide the learner with sufficient skills to enable them to work or improve their skills in a recognized occupation.

(We cannot guarantee that the Canada Revenue Agency will automatically accept receipts for all course/programs offered.)